

Financial Inclusion for Inclusive Growth

Author	: A. Rajmani Singha
Year of Publication	: 2013
ISBN	: 9788180699689
Language	: English
Binding	: Hard Bound
No of Pages	: 500
Size	: 23 cms
Categories	: Economics

About the Book :

The present book is an attempt at providing a comprehensive and value oriented strategies for Financial Inclusion for Inclusive Growth. There are thirty research papers contributed by scholars from within and outside the country. These chapters, are divided and presented in seven broad areas as per the content of the chapters: (i) Financial Inclusion and Inclusive Growth; (ii) Financial Inclusion and Microfinance; (iii) Financial Inclusion and Commercial Banks; (iv) Financial Inclusion and ICT; (v) Financial Inclusions and Micro Insurance; (vi) Financial Inclusion and Rural Development; and (vii) Financial Inclusions and Entrepreneurship Development. The present book would certainly make an eye opener and use this volume as a reference book on the desk top of academicians, research scholars and students of Commerce, Management, Economics and other allied subjects who are interested to know more on finance and financial inclusion in particular.

About Author :

Rajmani Singha M.Com. (Gold Medalist) and Ph.D. from Manipur University is currently working as Associate Professor of Finance and Accounting in the Department of Commerce, Manipur University. Before joining to the present position he has worked three years in She rubtse College in Royal Government of Bhutan (which was affiliated to University of Delhi) as Lecturer. He has published two books and 42 research papers in national and international repute in his credit. In the last one and half decade, he has been attending and participating 40 national and 10 international seminar and conferences as paper presenter and also actively participating as discussant and rapporteur. His area of interest is Finance (Microfinance, Financial Management and Security Analysis and Portfolio Management), Accounting, Management and Marketing. He was the founder President of the Association of Commerce Alumni (ACA) Department of Commerce, Manipur University and also the founder President of Manipur University Alumni Association (MUAA). He has been consultant to several Microfinance Institutions and Non-Governmental Organizations of the State in particular and region in general. At present he is coordinating NSS Units working in different colleges under Manipur University as Programme Coordinator, NSS Cell. He has organized several programmes related to NSS like National Integration Camp, Training of Trainers on Life Skills Education, Capacity Building on Employability, Financial Management and Accounting practices for Micro and Small enterprises, etc.